

Data You Might Have Missed

Do you want $3 from your tax return to go to the Presidential Election Campaign Fund?

“Yes” Responses Have Dropped Sharply

Note: Percentage of all filers who have to pay some tax saying yes to having $3, or $6 in joint returns, go to the fund.

Source: Internal Revenue Service, "Taxpayer Usage Study," 1997.

At the Office: What's OK?

Age differences are big on many of the items; those by gender small.

Proportions who say that each of the following is acceptable in a work setting

	All adults	Men	Women	Age 18-29	Age 65+
Complimenting a co-worker of the opposite sex on his or her appearance	86%	86%	86%	81%	84%
Asking a co-worker for a date	59%	57%	60%	64%	60%
Men in the office talking in mixed company about how attractive a woman is	44%	44%	44%	50%	38%
Hugging a co-worker of the opposite sex	40%	36%	44%	50%	26%
Displaying a calendar or screensaver of male or female models in swimsuits, in a personal workspace	31%	34%	28%	41%	25%
Asking a co-worker of the opposite sex a question about his or her personal life	26%	24%	27%	38%	13%
Calling someone in the office by a term such as "babe" or "honey"	20%	16%	23%	20%	25%
Telling off-color or dirty jokes	12%	12%	11%	18%	8%
Repeatedly asking a co-worker for a date after a refusal	7%	6%	8%	13%	9%

Source: Survey by Hart-Teeter for NBC News/Wall Street Journal, April 18-20, 1998.