

NATIONAL AND STATE EXIT POLLS

ROPER

CENTER

For Public Opinion Research

Roper iPoll is the repository for all U.S. Primary and Election Day National and State Exit Polls conducted by media organizations and consortiums.

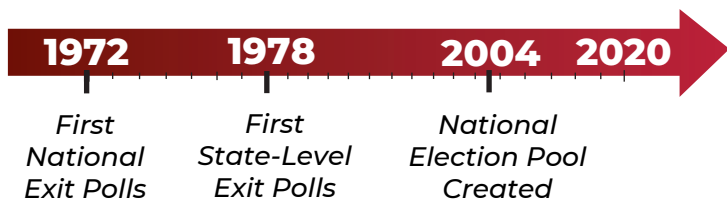

National exit polls include questions on:

- ★ Presidential and/or congressional votes
- ★ Gubernatorial races
- ★ Important issues affecting the vote decision
- ★ Presidential approval

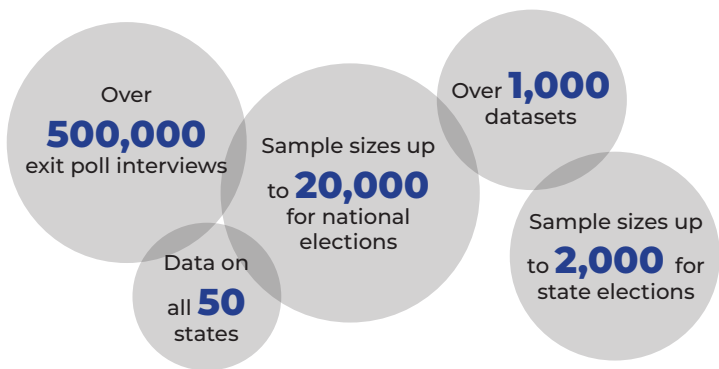

State exit polls include questions on:

- ★ Congressional and/or gubernatorial votes
- ★ Important statewide and local issues

Decades of data

Unparalleled statistics

*Roper iPoll is an essential resource for faculty, students, journalists, and anyone interested in American politics and government. No other database has the wealth of more than 750,000 polling questions asked since 1937 on every conceivable topic. It is simply the best gathering of public opinion data out there that chronicles the extraordinary life of our democracy. A must!

— John White, Professor of Politics
The Catholic University of America

Cornell University