

Roper iPoll

What is Roper iPoll?

- Over 725,000 searchable survey questions
- Over 23,000 complete individual-level datasets
- Data from over 120 countries
- Downloadable questionnaires, analysis, interviewer instructions, and more
- Topline charts and cross-tab analytic tools
- U.S. Election Exit Polls
- CoreTrustSeal™ certified archive

Why Subscribe to Roper iPoll?

Roper iPoll is the premier database in the field of public opinion. With data stretching back to 1935, it is the oldest and largest archive of public opinion surveys. No matter your field of expertise, Roper iPoll questions cover virtually every topic ever polled with data being entered on a daily basis.

"I use iPoll all the time! I couldn't do my job without it. It's truly amazing to me how much historical data has been preserved for posterity."

Lynn Vavreck

Marvin Hoffenberg Professor of American Politics, UCLA

Become a Member

Join the hundreds of organizations already benefiting from a Roper Center membership. For more information or to start your free trial, email membership@ropercenter.org or call 607-255-8129.

Major holding categories:

- Politics & Government
- Economics & Finance
- Health & Health Policy
- Science & Technology
- Energy & Environment
- Historical Collections
- Global data from over 120 countries

Cornell University

ropercenter.cornell.edu