

Question: In general, do you think it is a good idea or a bad idea to clone human beings?

Note: 29% think cloning sheep is a good idea; 67% say bad idea.
Source: Survey by Yankelovich Partners for Time/CNN, February 7-8, 2001.

Question: Do you think scientists should be allowed to clone human beings or don't you think so?

Source: Survey by Yankelovich Partners for Time/CNN, February 7-8, 2001.

Question: What is the main reason you are against the cloning of human beings? Because of your religious beliefs, because cloning interferes with human distinctiveness and individuality, because cloning could be used for questionable purposes like breeding a superior race or clone armies, because the technology involved is dangerous.

Against cloning

Note: Asked of those who said cloning humans is a bad idea.
Source: Survey by Yankelovich Partners for Time/CNN, February 7-8, 2001.

Question: Do you think it is against God's will to clone human beings or don't you feel this way?

Source: Survey by Yankelovich Partners for Time/CNN, February 7-8, 2001.

Question: Do you think it will be possible to create a human clone in the next 10 years, 20 years, 50 years or more, or don't you think it will ever be possible to create a human clone?

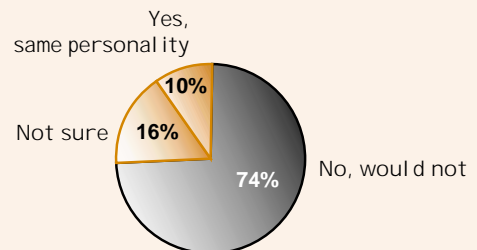

Cloning will be possible in

Source: Survey by Yankelovich Partners for Time/CNN, February 7-8, 2001.

Bringing Back the Dead

Question: Do you think the clone of a deceased person would have the same personality as that person?

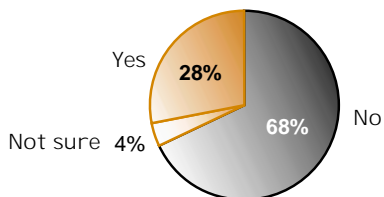

Source: Survey by Yankelovich Partners for Time/CNN, February 7-8, 2001.

No Matter What

Question: Do you think each of the following justifies creating a human clone or don't you think so...?

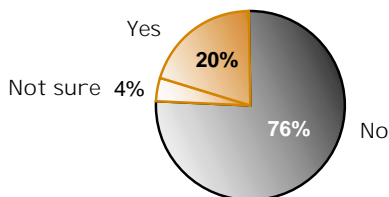

To produce copies of humans whose vital organs can be used to save the lives of others

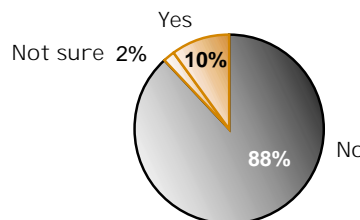

To save the life of the person who is being cloned

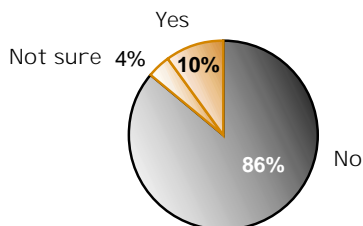

To help infertile couples to have children without having to adopt

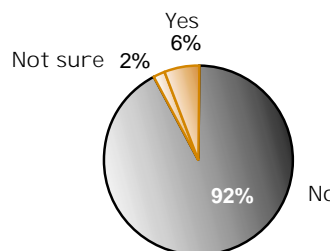

To allow parents who have lost a child to create a clone of the child they lost

To allow gay couples to have children using only their own genes

To create genetically superior human beings

Source: All data on this page are from a survey by Yankelovich Partners for Time/CNN, February 7-8, 2001.