

Top Stories

Question:

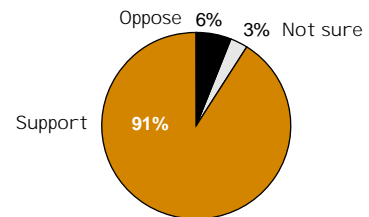

...I'm going to read you a list of some stories covered by news organizations in the last month or so. As I read each one, tell me if you happened to follow this news story very closely, fairly closely, not too closely, or not at all closely....

Source: Survey by the Kaiser Family Foundation/Harvard School of Public Health, Health News Index, March 28-31, 2002.

Question:

Do you support or oppose the US military action being taken [in Afghanistan] in response to the terrorist attacks [on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon September 11, 2001]?

Note: Asked of registered voters.

Source: Survey by Opinion Dynamics/Fox News, March 12-13, 2002.

...Whatever the Cost

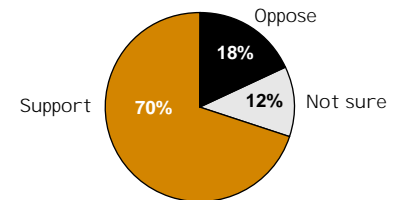

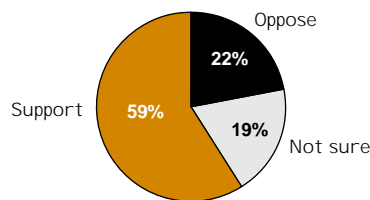

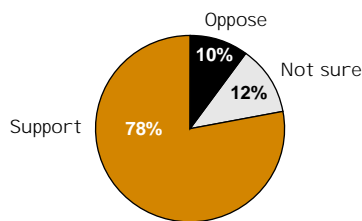

Question:

In recent weeks there have been increased numbers of American battle casualties. Will/Would you support or oppose the military action...

...if this trend continues and increasing numbers of American soldiers' lives are being lost?

...even if it cost the lives of thousands of civilians in the countries we attack?

...even if it means a war lasting up to five years?

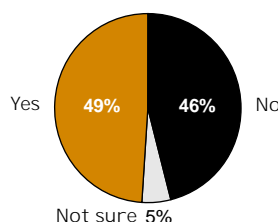

Note: Asked of registered voters who support the military action being taken in Afghanistan (91%).

Source: Survey by Opinion Dynamics/Fox News, March 12-13, 2002.

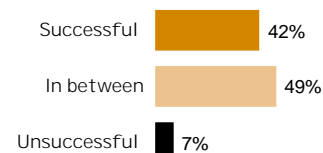

Question:

Do you think you are getting an accurate picture of how the war [in Afghanistan] is going or not?

Question:

In your opinion, has the current US military action in Afghanistan been successful, unsuccessful or somewhere in between?

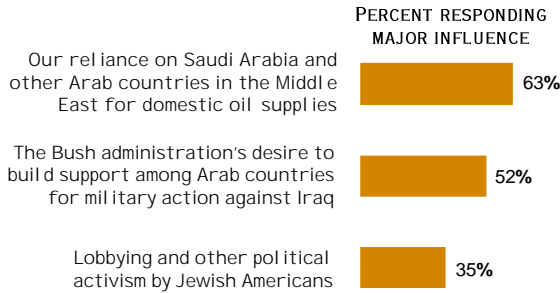

Source: Survey by Harris/Time/CNN, March 13-14, 2002.

Source: Survey by Harris/Time/CNN, March 13-14, 2002.

Before Ramallah

Question:

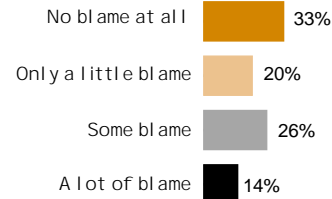

Please tell me if you think each of the following has a major influence, a minor influence, or no influence on US policy toward Israel today. What about...

Source: Survey by Princeton Survey Research Associates/Newsweek, March 21-22, 2002.

Question:

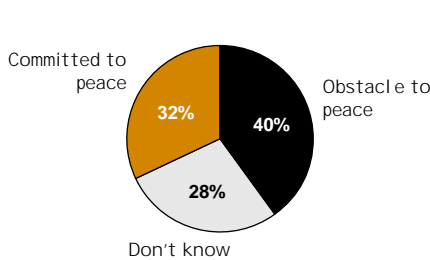

How much, if at all, do you think the Clinton administration's efforts to arrange a Middle East peace in its final days are to blame for creating a situation that led to the recent violence between the Israelis and Palestinians? Do you think the Clinton administration's efforts deserve...

Source: Survey by Princeton Survey Research Associates/Newsweek, March 21-22, 2002.

Question:

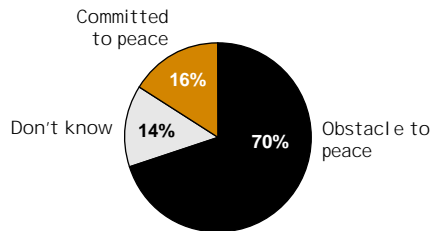

Do you see Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon more as someone who is committed to the Middle East peace process, or more as an obstacle to peace?

Source: Survey by Princeton Survey Research Associates/Newsweek, March 21-22, 2002.

Question:

Do you see Palestinian Authority chairman Yasser Arafat more as someone who is committed to the Middle East peace process, or more as an obstacle to peace?

Source: Survey by Princeton Survey Research Associates/Newsweek, March 21-22, 2002.

Question:

In your opinion, how likely is it that violence between the Israelis and Palestinians might lead to a wider war involving other countries in the Middle East—is it...?

Source: Survey by Princeton Survey Research Associates/Newsweek, March 21-22, 2002.

Texas Judgement

Question:

As you may know, Andrea Yates is on trial for killing her five children. Prosecutors are seeking the death penalty, but Yates' attorneys say she is innocent by reason of insanity. Do you think Yates knew that what she was doing was wrong when she drowned her children?

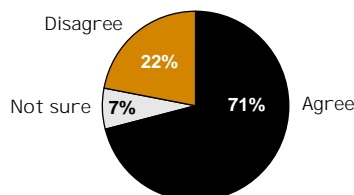

Note: Asked of registered voters.

Source: Survey by Opinion Dynamics/Fox News, March 12-13, 2002.

Question:

Finally, I have a question about Andrea Yates, the housewife who was convicted of drowning her five children in the family bathtub and whose claim of insanity was rejected by a jury. Do you agree or disagree with the jury's verdict?

Source: Survey by Harris/Time/CNN, March 13-14, 2002.

Question:

In your opinion, how responsible is Andrea Yates' husband for his wife's actions—very responsible, fairly responsible, not very responsible or not at all responsible?

Source: Survey by Harris/Time/CNN, March 13-14, 2002.